Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!" And some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, rebuke your disciples." He answered, "I tell you, if these were silent, the very stones would cry out."

P Jesus rode into Jerusalem on the way to the cross, there to forgive your sins through his innocent suffering and death. Therefore, I announce to you the good news that your sins are forever forgiven in the name of Jesus, who came to save us.

609 Jesus Sinners Doth Receive

5 Oh, how blest it is to know:
 Were as scarlet my transgression,
 It shall be as white as snow
 By Thy blood and bitter passion;
 For these words I now believe:
 Jesus sinners doth receive.

Prayer of the Day

Pastor King

P Hosanna! Save us! Today I join my praise to that joyful Palm Sunday procession! But I also see you weeping, Jesus, even as you enter your capital city as king. So I join my grief to yours: grief over my unwillingness to be gathered under your wing. King Jesus, turn my heart away from my own agenda for your rule, and let your kingdom come to me in grace this day. Your will be done. Amen.

Children's Message

Pastor Perez

The Old Testament Reading, Isaiah 65:1-3, 17-19, 24

Pastor Perez

P I was ready to be sought by those who did not ask for me; I was ready to be found by those who did not seek me. I said, "Here I am, here I am," to a nation that was not called by my name. I spread out my hands all the day to a rebellious people, who walk in a way that is not good, following their own devices; a people who provoke me to my face continually, sacrificing in gardens and making offerings on bricks. ... For behold, I create new heavens and a new earth, and the former things shall not be remembered or come into mind. But be glad and rejoice forever in that which I create; for behold, I create Jerusalem to be a joy, and her people to be a gladness. I will rejoice in Jerusalem and be glad in my people; no more shall be heard in it the sound of weeping and the cry of distress. ... Before they call I will answer; while they are yet speaking I will hear.

The Epistle Reading, Philippians 2:1-11

Pastor Perez

P So if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort from love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others. Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

The Gospel Reading, Luke 13:31-35

Pastor Perez

At that very hour some Pharisees came and said to him, "Get away from here, for Herod wants to kill you." And he said to them, "Go and tell that fox, 'Behold, I cast out demons and perform cures today and tomorrow, and the third day I finish my course. Nevertheless, I must go on my way today and tomorrow and the day following, for it cannot be that a prophet should perish away from Jerusalem.' O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it! How often would I have gathered your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you were not willing! Behold, your house is forsaken. And I tell you, you will not see me until you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!'"

The Sermon Hymn: 430 My Song Is Love Unknown

 That He His foes From thence might free.

6 In life no house, no home
 My Lord on earth might have;
 In death no friendly tomb
 But what a stranger gave.
 What may I say?
 Heav'n was His home
 But mine the tomb
 Wherein He lay.

7 Here might I stay and sing,
 No story so divine!
 Never was love, dear King,
 Never was grief like Thine.
 This is my friend,
 In whose sweet praise
 I all my days
 Could gladly spend!

Prayers

Pastor King

Each petition ends with the following response:

P O Lord, who enters in to save us,

C may we receive you willingly.

P Humble King, with palms and praises, we welcome you into our midst as you travel down the road to the cross and the empty tomb. Help us to continue to welcome you into our midst in our homes and into our neighborhoods, when we go to work and when we go to school. Help us always to sing your praises and glorify your name in all that we say and do, knowing that through you alone we have everlasting life. O Lord, who enters in to save us,

C may we receive you willingly.

P Those who gathered on the road when you entered Jerusalem to lift their voices to you in happy shouts of “Hosanna!” this day will soon raise their voices in anger toward you with shouts of “Crucify him!” Prepare our hearts with week for the transition from praise to persecution, and ready us to witness the ultimate sacrifice you made on the cross for us and for those who shouted for your crucifixion. Help us to recognize the pain that you endured but also the lasting joy that your death and resurrection will have on us all as we await the day when we will sing your praises together again in heaven. O Lord, who enters in to save us,

C may we receive you willingly.

P Caring Christ, so often we have wandered away from your embrace and turned away from your extension of love toward us. Return us from our wandering ways, restore us in a right relationship with you through your forgiveness, and grant us the peace and rest found only in your grace and mercy. O Lord, who enters in to save us,

C may we receive you willingly.

P So many in this world are not willing to listen to you, O Lord. Forgive them and open their ears to hear your good news to them that you love them unconditionally and eternally and want them to be a part of your family of faith. Help us to be your messengers of hope and help to those who are lost and hurting. Give us the courage to do all we can to bring them into your fold and share our lives with them. O Lord, who enters in to save us,

C may we receive you willingly.

P Reveal to us, O ever-present Lord, ways in which we can gather together more and more often as your brothers and sisters in the faith. Make us faithful in worship together. Bind us together in our prayer life. Speak to us in our sharing of your Word with one another. In all that we do in unity of the Spirit remind us that wherever two or three are gathered in your name, there you are in the midst of us. O Lord, who enters in to save us,

C may we receive you willingly.

P As we in spirit gather with your disciples in the upper room on Maundy Thursday, refresh us through the partaking of your blood and body given for us in the bread and wine of Holy Communion. As a community, may our relationships with one another be renewed and restored through that sacrament as well. O Lord, who enters in to save us,

C may we receive you willingly.

P As the women stood at the foot of your cross grieving on Good Friday, may we, too, join with others who are grieving losses of any kind. Be with those who are dying. Surround them with the love and support of loved ones, especially... Be with the sick. Grant them recovery and comfort according to your will, especially... O Lord, who enters in to save us,

C may we receive you willingly.

P All these petitions we offer in the name of our Savior Jesus Christ, who did the will of God and lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Pastor King

☐ Our Father who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name,
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done on earth
as it is in heaven;
give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those
who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom
and the power and the glory
forever and ever. Amen.

The Passion Reading, Luke 23:13-49

Pastor King

P Pilate then called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people, and said to them, “You brought me this man as one who was misleading the people. And after examining him before you, behold, I did not find this man guilty of any of your charges against him. Neither did Herod, for he sent him back to us. Look, nothing deserving death has been done by him. I will therefore punish and release him.” But they all cried out together, “Away with this man, and release to us Barabbas”—a man who had been thrown into prison for an insurrection started in the city and for murder. Pilate addressed them once more, desiring to release Jesus, but they kept shouting, “Crucify, crucify him!” A third time he said to them, “Why? What evil has he done? I have found in him no guilt deserving death. I will therefore punish and release him.” But they were urgent, demanding with loud cries that he should be crucified. And their voices prevailed. So Pilate decided that their demand should be granted. He released the man who had been thrown into prison for insurrection and murder, for whom they asked, but he delivered Jesus over to their will. And as they led him away, they seized one Simon of Cyrene, who was coming in from the country, and laid on him the cross, to carry it behind Jesus. And there followed him a great multitude of the people and of women who were mourning and lamenting for him. But turning to them Jesus said, “Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. For behold, the days are coming when they will say, ‘Blessed are the barren and the wombs that never bore and the breasts that never nursed!’ Then they will begin to say to the mountains, ‘Fall on us,’ and to the hills, ‘Cover us.’ For if they do these things when the wood is green, what will happen when it is dry?” Two others, who were criminals, were led away to be put to death with him. And when they came to the place that is called The Skull, there they crucified him, and the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. And Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do." And they cast lots to divide his garments. And the people stood by, watching, but the rulers scoffed at him, saying, "He saved others; let him save himself, if he is the Christ of God, his Chosen One!" The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine and saying, "If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!" There was also an inscription over him, "This is the King of the Jews." One of the criminals who were hanged railed at him, saying, "Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us!" But the other rebuked him, saying, "Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed justly, for we are receiving the due reward of our deeds; but this man has done nothing wrong." And he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." And he said to him, "Truly, I say to you, today you will be with me in paradise." It was now about the sixth hour, and there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour, while the sun's light failed. And the curtain of the temple was torn in two. Then Jesus, calling out with a loud voice, said, "Father, into your hands I commit my spirit!" And having said this he breathed his last. Now when the centurion saw what had taken place, he praised God, saying, "Certainly this man was innocent!" And all the crowds that had assembled for this spectacle, when they saw what had taken place, returned home beating their breasts. And all his acquaintances and the women who had followed him from Galilee stood at a distance watching these things.
